VOL. V. NO. 295.

CHICAGO, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 8, 1899.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

THE TENNESSEE OAKS.

The first important stake of next year for three-year-old fillies will be the Tennessee Oaks, to be decided at the Memphis Spring meeting. It had originally 49 entries, of which five were declared out May 1, 1899, and further declarations are due January 1 next. Elizabeth Klein, Lady Elite, Scarlet Lily, Brooch, Mollie Newman, Benita Brush, Belle of Orleans, Jen and Brownie Anderson seem to be the pick of those left in, as it is altogether improbable that the Burns & Waterhouse pair, Southern Girl and Bit of Fashion, will be sent east so early in the year. But filly form before midsummer is notoriously unreliable and in no race is the unsuspected outsider so liable to creep to the front as in a stake like the Tennessee Oaks. The list of nominations now left in is as follows:

A sweepstakes for fillies, three-year-olds (foals of 1897) $100 each, $40 forfeit, or $10 if declared on or before May 1, 1899; $20 if declared on or before January 1, 1900. All declarations void unless accompanied by the money. $1,000 added, of which $400 to second, $200 to third, fourth to save stake. Weight, 117 pounds. One mile.

According to reports there is no telling just how many new race tracks St. Louis will have next season. As is generally known, the Adler-Cella-Tilles syndicate has had the matter of building a new track under consideration for the past two months. Enthusiastic sporting writers, whose wish is probably father to the thought, also report that J. D. Lucas and Tom Maxwell are endeavoring to build new race tracks in St. Louis County. Mr. Lucas owns the Goodwood stock farm in the county. He is said to be figuring on building a track near Normandy. Mr. Maxwell is a wealthy mule dealer. He owns a big farm on the St. Charles road. Mike Barry tried to organize a syndicate to build a race track on Mr. Maxwell's farm last year, but the capitalists approached by him decided to invest their loose change in government bonds in preference to taking stock in the new race track. The latest new race track project of the season was sprung by Cole Ullman yesterday. Cole's hustling brother, Joe Ullman, blew into St. Louis from West Baden, Wednesday. Cole says he is here to build a new track. According to Cole, his brother has coin galore back of him. He will decide on what sort of a course to build after looking over the field thoroughly. Joe has brought a Yerkes telescope with him to size up the situation thoroughly. Cole and his brother Joe, were responsible for the East Side and Madison whirligigs that flourished on the other side of the river a few years back, and it's to be sincerely hoped that their next undertaking in that line will be large enough at least to permit hobby-horses to circle its turns without risk of losing their balance.—St. Louis Republic.

As is his custom, Charles T. Patterson will spend the winter with his horses at Memphis, and in part devote himself to training a young jockey who he thinks is destined to rank with the best in the land. Of this boy he said recently at Lexington: "Lucien Lyne is the youngest son of Mr. Sanford Lyne of this city, and that he will be the premier jockey of America some day I have little doubt. He is now sixteen years of age, a bright, smart little gentleman. He weighs now about 75 pounds, and is so constructed physically that it will be some years before he over-reaches the 100-pound mark. Really he is ready to take a mount now. I have had him exercising since July. He has a good seat, and uses his hands quite as well as any jockey riding today, not excepting the much-lauded Tod Sloan.

"I have purchased several two-year-old fillies to enter in selling races and on them I expect to give Lucien his first lessons in the racing game. I expect to start in at Little Rock and by the time the Eastern tracks open Lucien will be ready to handle the six or seven horses that I expect to race around New York. I will ride him almost exclusively. I would rather lose a race by a bad ride than to be left with the impression that I had probably been the victim of the expertness of a dishonest jockey. My experience with jockeys after I lost Everett in the east this year was quite enough to make a man wish he had never seen a race track."

Bonneville has taken his departure from "Texas" Smith's stable. Before winning the handicap Tuesday he was sold to W. J. Roche and ran in his name. The price paid was $3,000. The terms were $2,000 cash, the purse of $200 yesterday and the remaining $800 to be paid out of his future winnings. Mr. Roche acted as agent for ex-jockeys Lamley and Ham.—New Orleans Picayune.

After winning the first race at Tanforan Tuesday Dunblane, in for $500, was bid up to $1,500 by F. W. Doss and bought in by W. B. Jennings, his owner. Jennings evened up by claiming Decoy from Doss for $825. Doss then claimed Tar Hill from W. M. Murry for $725.

CALIFORNIA J. C. STAKES.

None of the California Jockey Club's stakes, which closed November 6, will be run off this year, the dates selected for their decision being as follows:

Monday, January 22, 1900—The Follansbee Handicap, $1,500, two-year-olds and upward; 62 entries. 7-8 mile.

Saturday, January 27—The Lissak Handicap, $1,500, two-year-olds and upward; 55 entries. 1 mile.

Saturday, February 3—The Naglee Selling Stakes, $1,500, three-year-olds and upward; 65 entries. 7-8 mile.

Saturday, February 10—The McLaughlin Selling Stakes, $1,500, two-year-olds and upward; 63 entries. 11-16 miles.

Monday, February 26—The Gunst Handicap, $1,500, two-year-olds and upward; 56 entries. 11-16 miles.

Saturday, March 3—The Burns Handicap, $10,000, two-year-olds and upward; 80 entries. 11-14 miles.

Saturday, March 10—The Palace Hotel Handicap, $2,000, 2-year-olds and upward; 55 entries. 11-8 miles.

Thursday, March 29—The Pacific Union Handicap, $2,000, 3-year-olds; 33 entries. 11-8 miles.

Saturday, March 31—The Thornton Stakes, $3,000, 3-year-olds and upward; 22 entries. 4 miles.

Saturday, April 7—The Gebhard Handicap, $2,000, 2-year-olds (foals of 1898); 74 entries. Futurity course.

It should be noted that in the case of the Thornton Stakes supplementary entries will be received fifteen days before the date set for its running, so that its present entry list will no doubt be swelled by horses that have been well tried out before entering them for the long and trying journey over its four mile route.

The Burns Handicap is at present the star racing event of the Pacific coast and is of equal value with the two great handicaps of the east, the Brooklyn and the Suburban. Weights are announced five days before the race. Its eighty entries and their ages at the time the race is to be run are as follows:

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Manager Frank Fowler, of the Queen City Jockey Club, will leave for New Orleans in a few days. Mr. Fowler will have a book on at the Crescent City meeting in time to catch the holiday play. He has not yet announced his plans for next season, further than to say that Newport will have a meeting next May. It is evident, however, that the management of the track intends to make numerous improvements at the Campbell County course, and everything will be completed in time for the early spring opening.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Jockey Elmer James, who was suspended at the New Orleans track early last spring by acting steward C. McDowell for a ride on Elmer S., which did not seem to be what it should be, has been reinstated, and is now eligible to take mounts. The reinstatement was in the nature of a Christmas present to James, who has been in hard lines ever since his suspension.

The present meeting at Tanforan Park will cover three weeks. The California Jockey Club will then conduct racing for a similar period.
The departure from the usual system of two weeks about was made by agreement so that each of the two clubs could have a fair proportion of the holiday season.

Admetus had a rough journey. Henry Launt was knocked to his knees on the first turn. Domozetta was raced to weariness in front the first three-quarters. Walkenshaw closed stoutly under pressure. THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1899 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, racing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records (by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler), harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment. The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

Winner—Ch. f. by Amigo—Lizzie B. Post 1 minute. Start good except for Heartless. Won easily; the next two were driving. Hindoo Princess got off well, had a clear course and was well ridden. Heartless was probably best but she was not up to the barrier as it went up and had much ground to make up. Red Cherry ran a good race. St. Isidore is improving. Blooming Chance is speedy but a rank quitter. Miss Soak was well backed and showed some speed.
